

14th Annual Friends of the Library

2019 AUTHOR SERIES

January 15
Addie J. King
Contemporary Fantasy

Addie J. King is an attorney by day and author by nights, evenings, weekends, and whenever else she can find a spare moment. She is the author of six novels, including the Grimm Legacy Series, and the Hochenwalt Files Series. She lives in Urbana, Ohio.

February 12
Cindy Thomson
Historical Fiction

Cindy Thomson is the author of eight books, including her newest novel, Enya's Son, third in the Daughters of Ireland series based on ancient legends. Being a genealogy enthusiast, she has also written articles for Internet Genealogy and Your Genealogy Today magazines, and children's short stories for Clubhouse Magazine.

March 19
A.E. Jones
Paranormal Romance

Paranormal romance and urban fantasy author A.E. Jones writes about all variations of supernatural. A.E. is the winner of RWA's Golden Heart Award and the Booksellers Best Award. She has been a Holt & Daphne du Maurier finalist. A.E. lives in Ohio surrounded by her eclectic family and friends who in no way resemble any characters in her books.

April 16
Jennifer A. Davids
Inspirational Fiction

Jennifer A. Davids is a self-professed book nerd. The shelves of her office are overflowing with books and there are stacks of them by her bedside. When she's not reading, she's dreaming up a new story to tell her readers. She lives in Central Ohio with her husband, two children, and two cats.